

The British School Manila has a requirement for a prospective member of the teaching staff who will take the position in August 2017

KS1/KS2 Year Leader

We are looking for a dynamic and experienced year leader who is passionate about learning, able to empower their team and work collaboratively. They should be effective decision makers, who are proactive and innovative with curriculum design, whilst embracing BSM's Vision and Mission. In addition, please see the primary teacher attributes below.

Primary Teachers (EYFS to Year 6)

We are seeking reflective primary practitioners who themselves are life-long learners, to join a hard working team who plan collaboratively and creatively. For EYFS we are looking for a teacher that is committed to providing challenging play based learning opportunities and demonstrates an enthusiasm for outdoor learning.

We follow the National Curriculum of England for English and maths. Alongside this we have specialist taught subjects and Project-based Learning units that drive our vision and mission aspiration of developing students as global citizens. These units are authentic, challenging and develop learning skills, understandings and values that we hope will enable students to be able and willing to contribute positively to their world.
